LOUISVILLE, May 5 .- The races here

During these negotiations we made a number of propositions seemed that which and this not because we were convinced our original propositions were unfair or wrong but purely for the purpose of hinding a common ground upon which we could reach an agreement that would secure and maintain peace in the anthracite coal industry.

Was reasonable and fair, notwitistand fing the modifications we have sime the interests of beace, and now we are face to fince with the alternative of continuing at work under our former conditions or declaring a strike. In this crisis your committee recombed the first work of the first work of the course of the first work of the course of the c is basis,
